

Let's Get This Out of the Way Right Now

If you are looking for the “quick win” or “the magic money button” then you are in the wrong place and you may as well leave right now.

BUT if you are looking to build something of value that will eventually bring you an income then stick around.

Yes, I am going to bore you about how I got started.

Let me start by saying I hated my job, as I got older, I just wasn't able to take the corporate bullshit anymore or even worse to take orders from people who in my mind were halfwits.

I figured that I had better start something on the side before I got fired or assaulted someone. Yes, it was that bad, I'm sure some of you can relate?

Then I had a motorcycle accident, bikes are my passion. I had to be on my back in bed for about 3 weeks. Obviously, I got really bored so I started messing around online and in particular ways to make money online.

I've been in the online marketing game since 2011, and I've been doing it full time since 2015. I've tried just about every way to make money online. Most of it flopped. A few things worked — and those few things built the life I have now.

I'm not a guru, not some fake-it-till-you-make-it influencer. I've just been quietly grinding, testing, failing, and figuring out what actually works. My time is my own, I do what I want to do, when I want to do it.

At first all you think about is the money, it's tough not to. But eventually the sales roll in and then it becomes more about giving back.

Now I'm focused on helping others do the same — to escape the daily grind and build something real. It's not easy. It takes work. There's no “push button” magic here. But if you're serious about changing your situation, it's possible.

PS — One of the best days of my life was the day I finally quit my 9 to 5 job. I had built a online business that I was proud of and that I could live off.

I have no idea what your situation looks like. You may need extra cash for something, holiday money, or like me just want to be your own boss.

Whatever the reason, make a decision now to improve your situation and stick to it. In the next part of the free training, you will see a link to a checklist, this is the best way to start and stay on course.

I wish you the best of luck and please feel free to contact me for any reason, I genuinely want you to succeed and make a better life for yourself.
